Senator Dickey Back

From Long Absence

Senator C. H. Dickey returned yesterday after a four months' absence on the mainland, during which time he was in twenty-six States and Territories, and said he, "I visited every relative I have in America. I was at Chicago as an alternate delegate to the National Republican Convention. I also visited the G. A. R. Encampment at Boston, and spent much time in the Middle West.

"I find the sentiment in the Middle West even stronger than the East for Roosevelt. I believe the former followers of Bryan will go in large numbers to the Republican side on the Presidential issue. Bryan himself is merely a lukewarm supporter of Parker.

"Yes; there is prosperity through the States everywhere I have gone, but Kansas is likely to get it in the neck with an early frost.
